Thank you for considering Moore Foundation's educational consulting services! We are happy to introduce you to an exciting adventure in homeschooling where God is the center of all learning and every child can find success and fulfillment. We are dedicated to assisting parents who wish to educate their children at home with a low stress program of study, work, and service. Every child is treated as an individual. We take into consideration your child's interests and aptitudes. People enroll their children when they feel insecure, need one-on-one mentoring to interpret the Moore Formula to their home situation, or desire the verification of competent education for school authorities, significant family members or because they value the help of our Educational Consultants. Our Christ-centered Seventh-Day Adventist curriculum is designed to not only broaden educational horizons, but to build beautiful characters as well.

“True education means more than the pursuit of a certain course of study. It means more than a preparation for the life that now is. It has to do with the whole being, and with the whole period of existence possible to man. It is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers. It prepares the student for the joy of service in this world and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come.” the book, ‘Education’ - page 13.

The Moore Formula is a "prescription for excellence," intended for the education of God's remnant children. The formula is not new; it is actually old! Using God's blueprint, the Bible, Spirit of Prophecy by the pen of Inspiration, along with "statistical educational research results" on how children learn best, Dr. Raymond & Dorothy Moore started The Moore Foundation, the first worldwide homeschooling program using this ancient methodology, while supporting these methods with modern data. By using the above guidelines that have proven to be successful even in this supposedly modern age, the Moore Formula has become a well-known "byword" for God's true education.
